A comic panel featuring two young men. The man on the left has dark hair and wears glasses; he has a frustrated expression with his mouth open as if shouting. The man on the right has brown hair and a more neutral, slightly questioning expression. Both are wearing dark sweaters over white collared shirts. Three speech bubbles are present: one from the man on the right at the top, one from the man on the left in the middle, and a small one from the man on the right at the bottom.

TOTTER TOTTER

The bottom panel of the comic features three cockatoos with white heads and pink eye-rings, perched on a large, red, multi-pointed starburst. The starburst is set against a dark background. To the right of the cockatoos, the long, blue and white tail feathers of a peacock are visible. The words 'TOTTER TOTTER' are written in a stylized, white, outlined font across the middle of the scene, appearing to be part of the cockatoos' dialogue.
